THE FOUR FACTORS OF FENG SHUI

When analyzing the quality of a property's Feng Shui, these four integral factors are universally applied in all Feng Shui systems:

- Refers to the external landforms – mountains, lakes, rivers, roads, highways, etc. – surrounding the property from which the main source of Qi, the type of Qi, and its flow to the property is determined.
- Plays a role in influencing the types of Qi present, which consequently affects the quality of the occupants in the property.

- Refers to the structural design of the Building on the property.
- Determines the effectiveness of the building design in receiving and retaining positive Qi within the property.

- Refers to the occupants who inhabit the property.
- Determines whether the location and orientation of the property, as well as the Qi tapped into the property, is suitable for its occupants in terms of their personal wellbeing, goals and objectives.

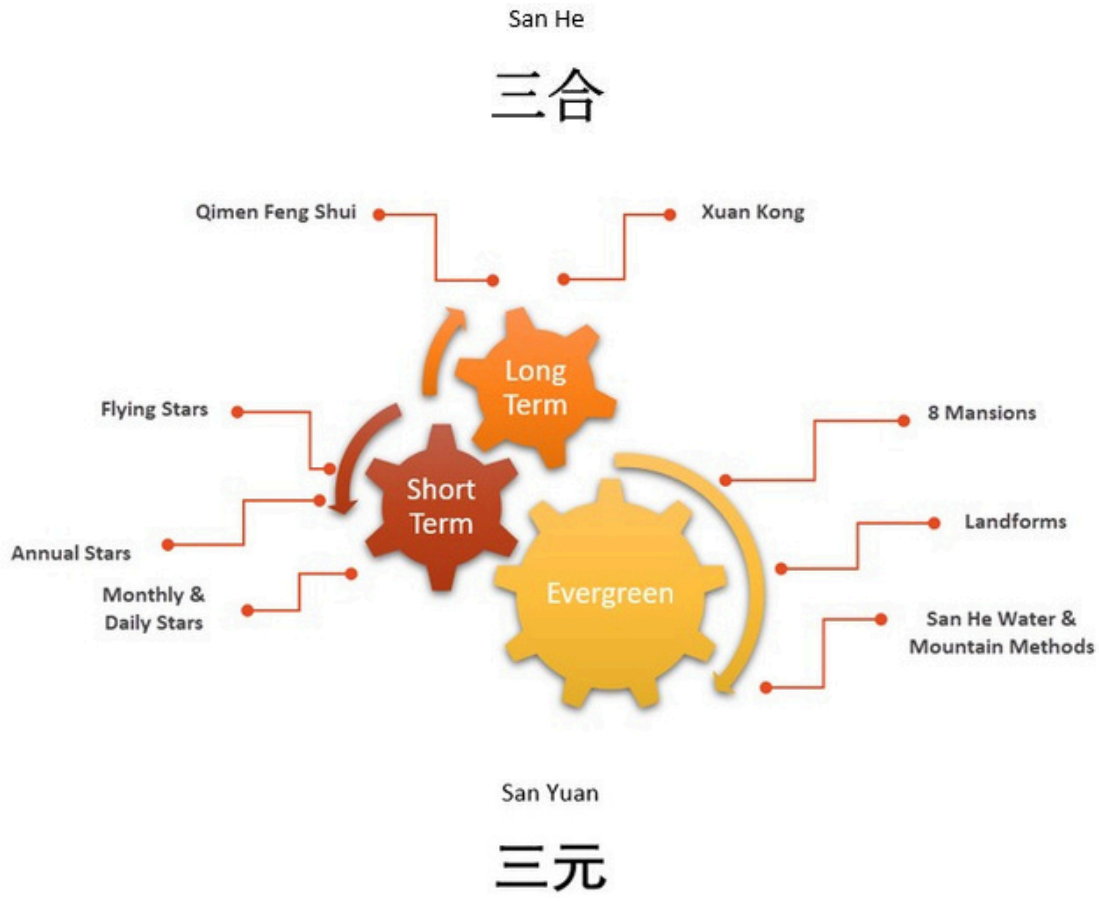

- Refers to the time cycle of the property and/or individual occupant.
- Determines whether positive Qi from the external landform features is timely for the property on a long-term basis.

LONG-TERM FENG SHUI VS. SHORT-TERM FENG SHUI

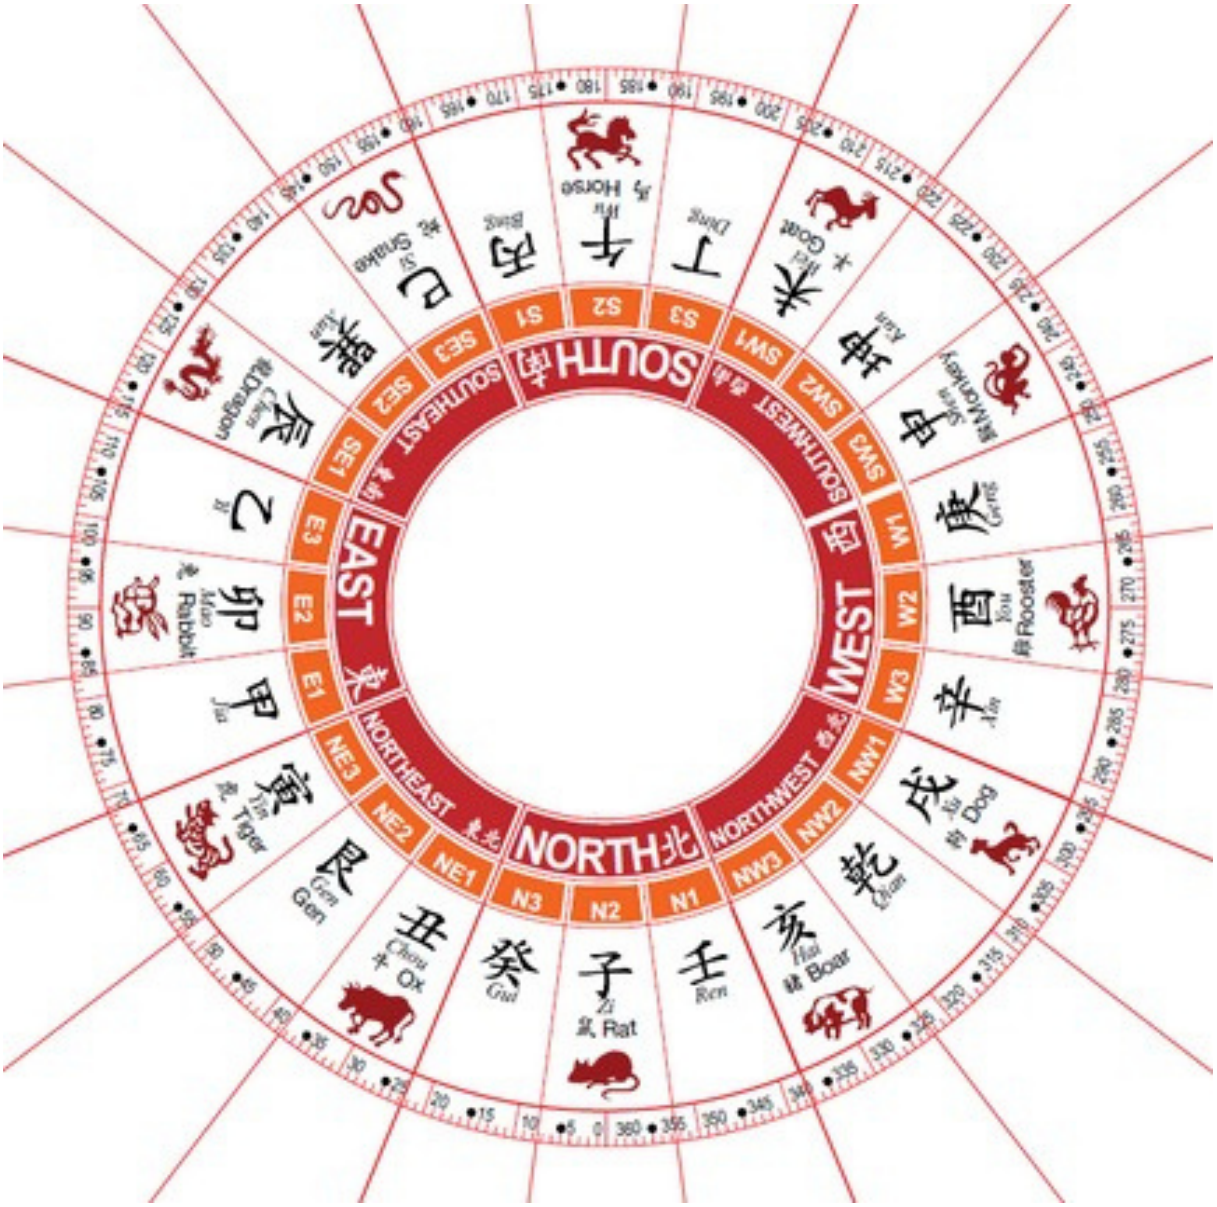

Long-term Feng Shui
Long-term Feng Shui refers to methods used for long-term goals, usually spanning decades The effects are not as quick compared to short-term Feng Shui. The plus side is the cumulative effects of long-term Feng Shui is considered more potent in nature. It generally involves the assessment of external landforms and utilizes static formulas such as 8 Mansions.

Short-term Feng Shui
Short-term Feng Shui refers to a Feng Shui assessment and arrangement that is short-term in nature and in approach. It generally requires a daily, monthly or yearly assessment. The effects are quick and dynamic. However, the downside is that the effects are of course short-lived and less potent. It tends to involve the Feng Shui of the interior, and utilizes systems such as Flying Stars. For instance, for short-term Feng Shui we would be looking at the Annual Flying Stars for the year 2026.

THE 24 MOUNTAINS

The 24 Mountains are the 8 Main Directions on a compass, trisected into 3 sub-sectors for each Main Direction. Each of the 24 Mountains also has a Yin or Yang quality that is marked on a Luo Pan. In addition, the 12 Animal Signs (professionally known as the “Earthly Branches”) of the 24 Mountains represent the position of the Earth in relation to the Sun.

2027 FLYING STARS & YEARLY AFFLICTIONS

Sector	Annual Star	Key Words	Forecast
Southeast	8 White	Cashflow	Those seeking better cashflow should pay attention to the Southeast sector. It is not the most prosperous sector anymore, and the cashflow energies are receding, but it is still useable.
South	4 Green	Romance, academic success	Those in the academic or artistic fields will benefit greatly from the #4 Star, which is located in the South this year. Writers and people who are involved in academic and research work should ideally work in this sector of their home or office. The #4 Star also bodes well for romance and love, and couples who use this sector will enjoy a better relationship. If you use a South Main Door, or sit in the South sector of your office, you are likely to do quite a bit of socializing this year.
Southwest	6 White	Authority, power, career advancement	The presence of the #6 White Star suggests the possibility of climbing the career ladder and gaining more authority at work. There is a likelihood for being recognized for one's efforts and it is a great sector to use if you wish to make an impact at your workplace or your career. However, while this Star is generally positive, if activated by negative forms outside, it can lead to sudden, unexpected changes in the workplace that raise your stress level and has a negative effect on your physical health.
West	2 Black	Illness, stress	If you are of bad health, avoid the Northwest sector this year, as the #2 Illness Star can aggravate health-related issues. Pregnant women should be particularly mindful and stay away from this sector. In order to reduce the negative effects of this area, place metal items here, such as objects made from bronze, copper, brass, or pewter. On the upside, this sector can provide you with good returns if you are in a property related field.

2027 FLYING STARS & YEARLY AFFLICTIONS

Sector	Annual Star	Key Words	Forecast
Northwest	1 White	Reputation, recognition, advancement, investments	This is the ideal location for those who are keen on self-improvement and better their communication skills. It is a great sector to work or study at, and can result in success on multiple fronts – whether that be in your career or in an academic setting. It is also often associated with career advancement and increased travel, as well as wealth accumulation. Due to its positive impact on your communication skills, it can also help better your relationships with others. Furthermore, it is helpful to all those who would like to learn more about investing.
North	5 Yellow	Calamities, challenges	Since the 5 Yellow Star occupies the North sector this year, it is best to postpone all types of groundbreaking or renovation activities in this sector until 2028. And since remedy is better than cure, it's best to pacify the ill effects of this energy by placing heavy metal objects made out of either copper, brass, iron, or pewter in this sector for the time being.
Northeast	3 Jade	Arguments & gossip	Avoid the Northeast sector this year as it is host to the #3 Jade Star, which brings arguments and gossip, as well as troublesome disagreements. If triggered, this Star can result in conflicts that can have serious consequences, such as lawsuits and legal complications. Mitigating these events from happening is recommended and you can do so by placing an oil lamp or bright red items here.
East	7 Red	Discord, robbery, theft	This sector can have a profoundly negative impact on your physical and emotional wellbeing. If you are married you are advised to avoid this sector of the home or you will be bogged down in conflict and frequent quarreling. If your Main Door is located in this sector, there are negative effects in place that could increase your likelihood of being scammed or have items stolen from you. However, this is a good sector for those working in a metaphysics career.

AUSPICIOUS & INAUSPICIOUS LOCATIONS IN 2027

For those who want to take full advantage of the positive energies in 2027, we recommend to follow the annual and the monthly Flying Stars. The rule of thumb is to "Chase the Stars," which means that one should always activate or make use of the positive Annual Star #9 for wealth matters, #1 if you are looking for helpful people and investment opportunities, #2 for long-term asset generation, #8 for better cashflow, and #4 for academic success and relationship luck.

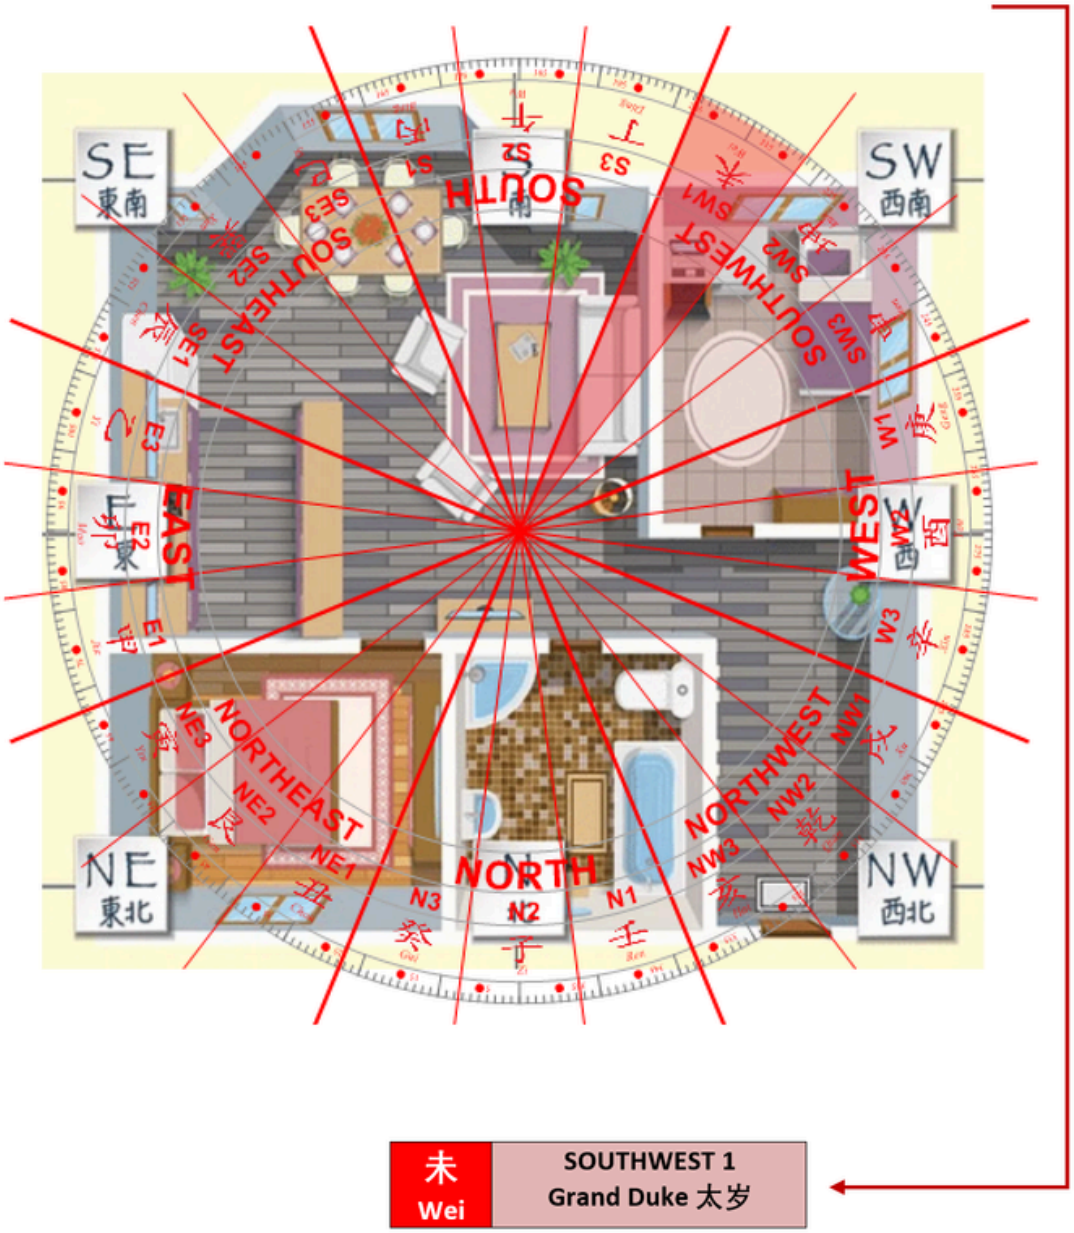

Chasing the Stars mean that you will have to spend time in those areas that contain the Star you want to make use of. For more short-term goals you can do the same with the Monthly Flying Stars. The key is to identify what you want and then activate and utilize the Stars in a targeted manner.

AREAS THAT SHOULD BE AVOIDED FOR RENOVATION IN 2027

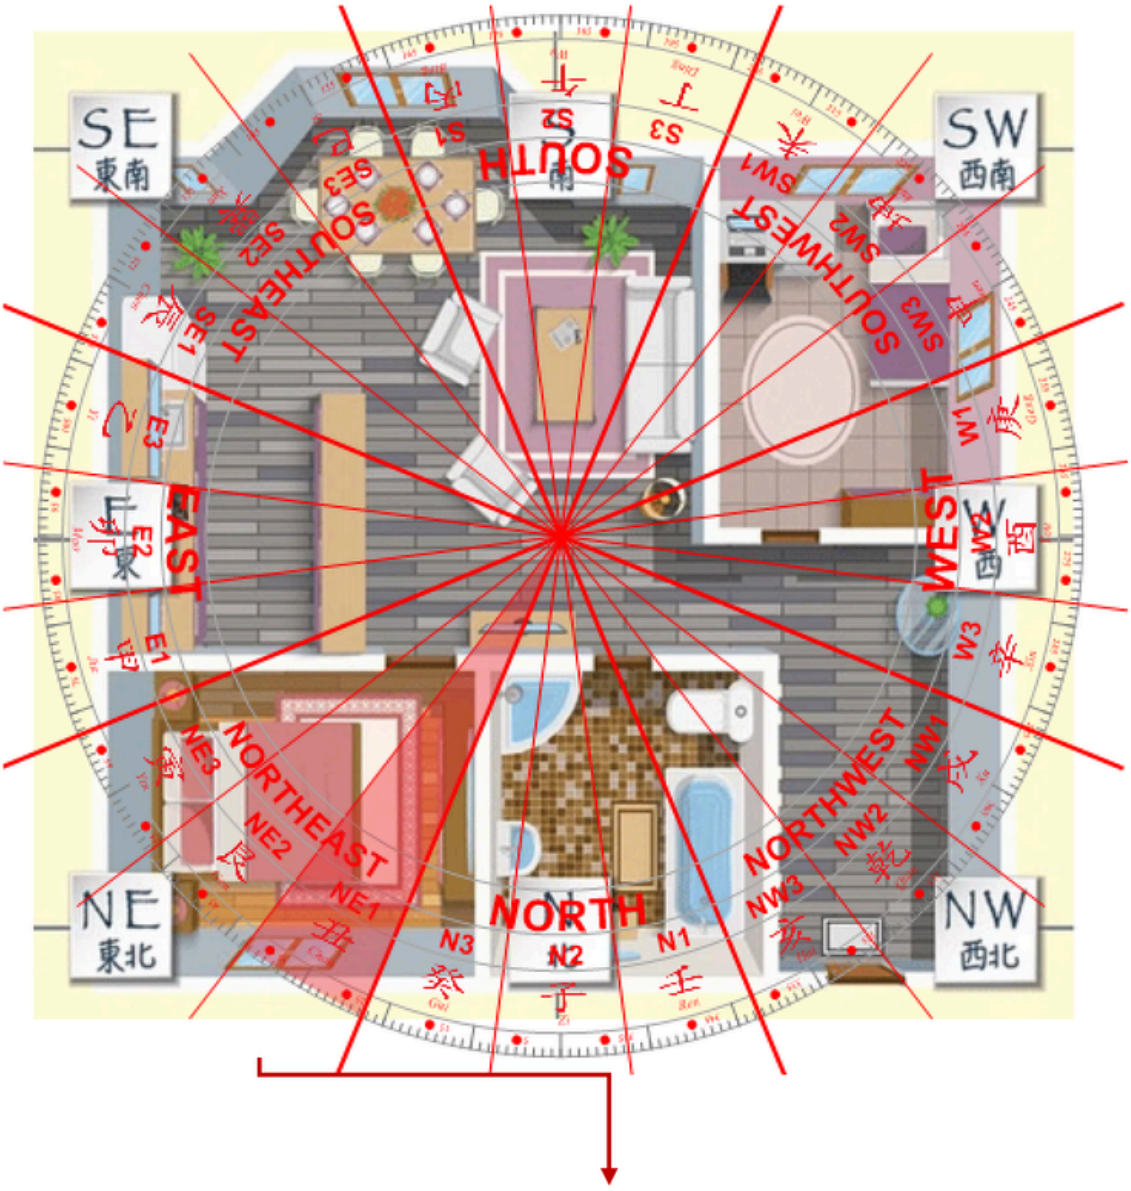

THE GRAND DUKE (太岁)
SOUTHWEST 1 (202.5°- 217.5°)

2027 is the Year of the Fire Goat, and the Grand Duke resides in the Southwest 1 sector. If you trigger this area negatively, there will be detrimental consequences. However, these can be avoided altogether if you refrain from any activities in this sector and focus your time and energy on the more auspicious areas of your home or office.

It is vital to understand that these locations apply not only to your home, but also all other spaces where you spend a considerable amount of time. Be mindful of where you work and do not locate your desk in this area or face Southwest 1 in 2027. It can however be advantageous for you to put your back facing towards the Grand Duke, as this will enable you to better exercise authority and control in the workplace.

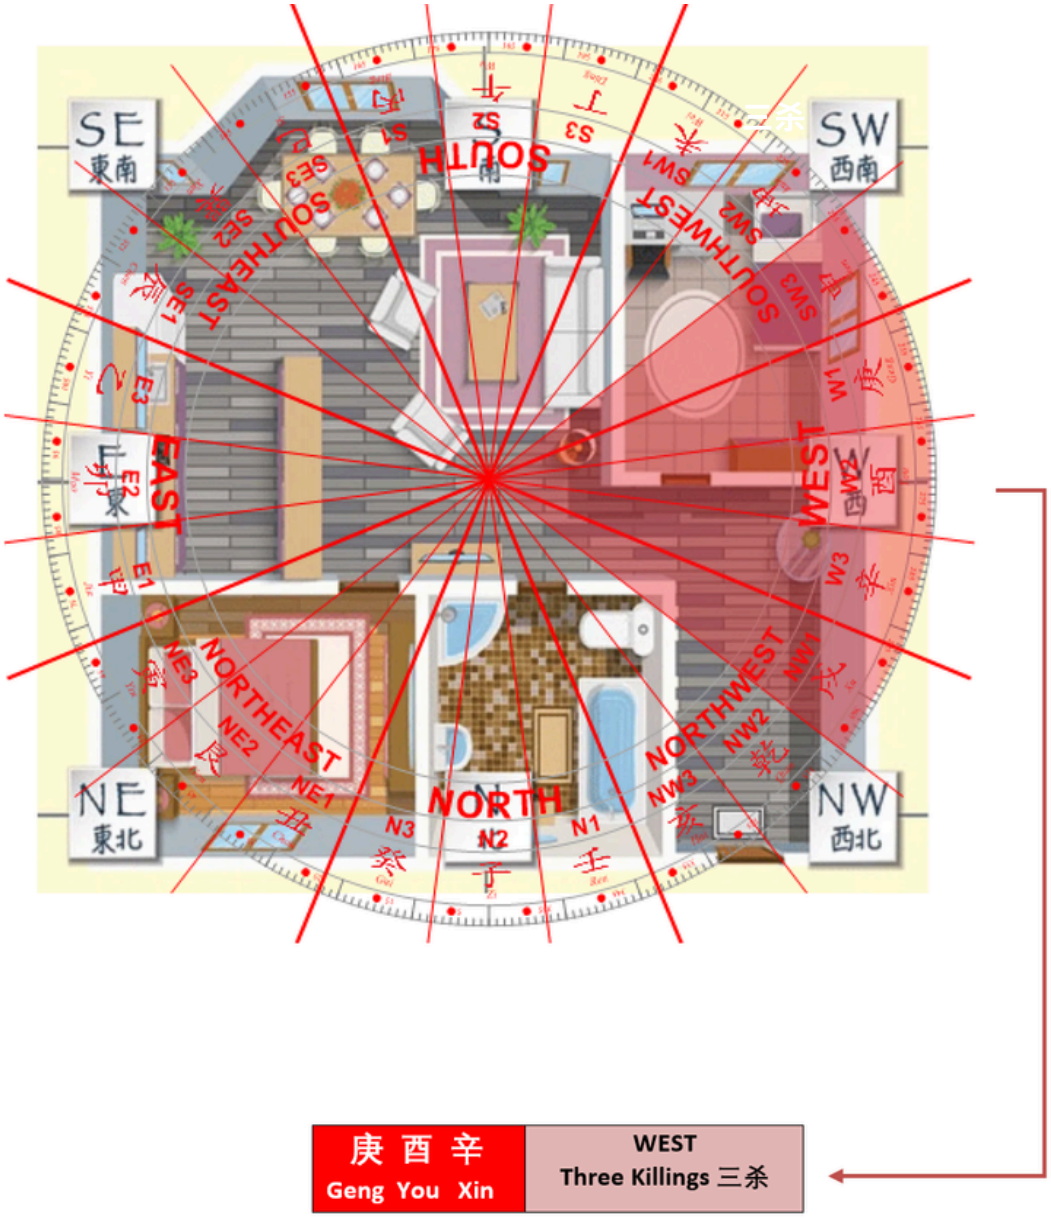

THE YEAR BREAKER (岁破)
NORTHEAST 1 (22.5° - 37.5°)

The presence of the Grand Duke in any year makes any direction opposite to it an automatic no-go zone as it assumes the position of the "Wrath of the Grand Duke." In 2027 the Year Breaker is located in the Northeast 1 sector, and it is best not to activate this area at all.

If you have made any plans or arrangements to renovate or make changes in this area, it is advisable to wait until the year has passed and save your efforts for another time.

THE THREE KILLINGS (三杀)
WEST (247.5° - 292.5°)

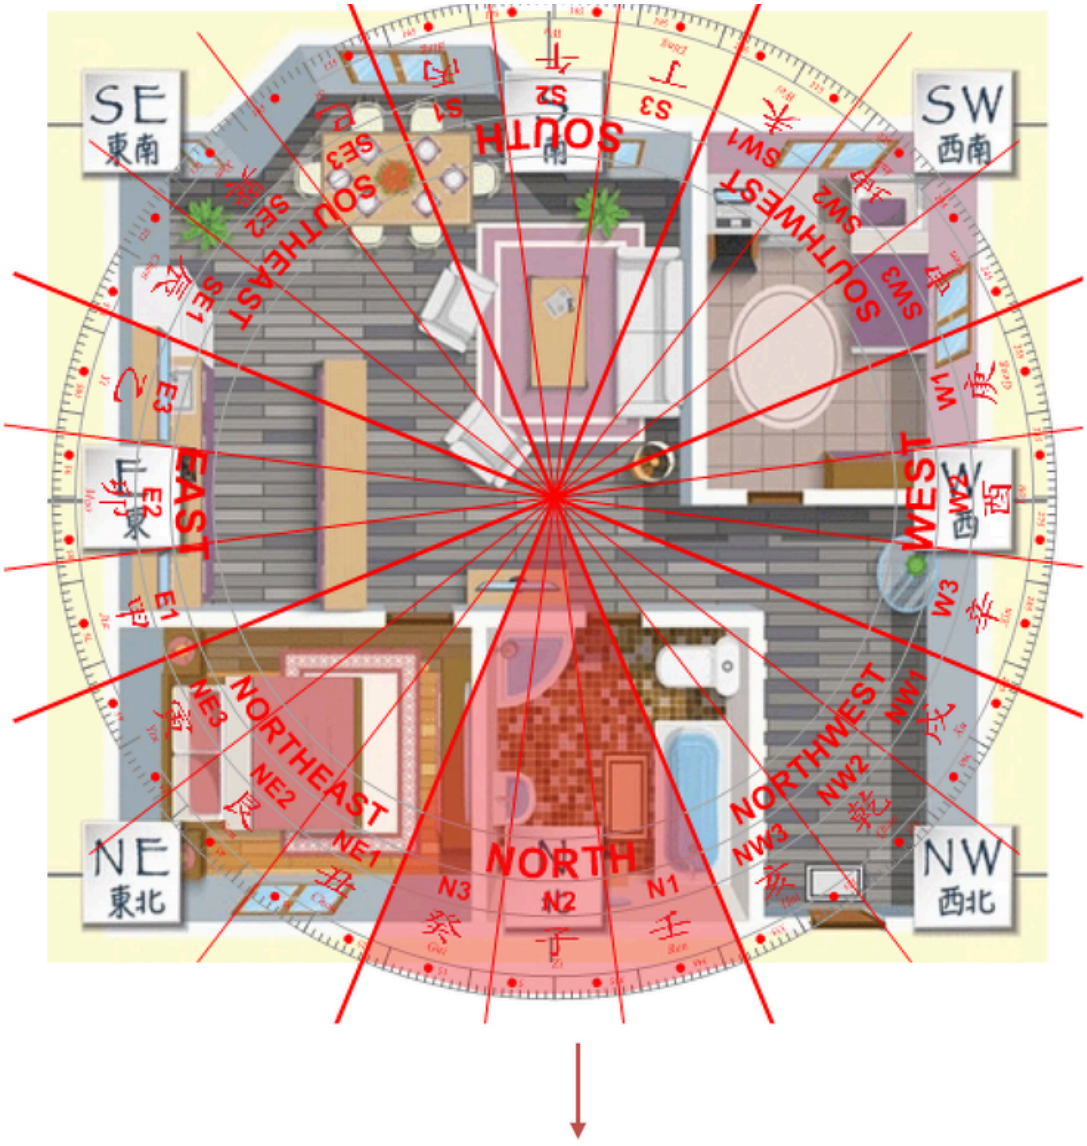

庚 酉 辛	WEST
Geng You Xin	Three Killings 三杀

To avoid any misfortune or mishaps in 2027, it is best to leave the West sector of your home undisturbed as it is occupied by the Three Killings Affliction. It is advisable to avoid any activity in this space to reduce any possibility of the Star's negative effects manifesting in your life.

This affliction could be activated by any major changes to the immediate environment – both internal and external. Therefore, it is best to avoid any home improvement activities, such as renovations, breaking walls, or ground-breaking activities in this sector. Failing to do so can result in loss of material possessions, health issues, accidents, and robbery.

THE FIVE YELLOW (五黃)
NORTH (337.5° - 22.5°)

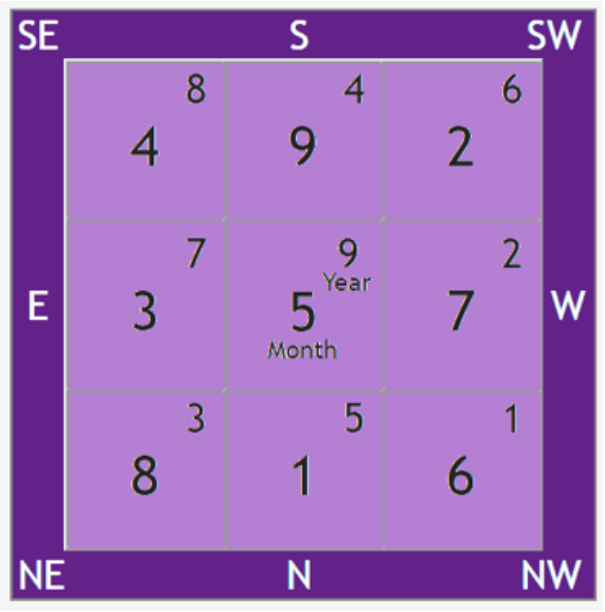

壬 子 癸 Ren Zi Gui	NORTH Five Yellow 五黃

The North of your home is another risky zone this year as it becomes the host of the Five Yellow Star. To avoid misfortune, it is best to completely avoid any major activity in this area. Even seemingly small improvements, such as nailing or drilling a wall should be avoided in order to ensure you pacify this Star.

Should there be any elderly or pregnant residents sleeping in this area, it is best to relocate them elsewhere within the home for the duration of the year 2027.

WEALTH IN 2027

While it's true that money isn't the be-all and end-all, there's no denying it can make daily life smoother, open up more choices, and offer the kind of flexibility that lets us truly enjoy our time. Beyond that, having financial resources allows us to lend a hand to those around us and make a real difference in their world. On top of all that, there's a certain comfort that comes with financial security—a quiet reassurance that's hard to overlook.

That's exactly why 2027 is the year to tune into the flow of wealth around us, tap into that energy, and stay alert to the doors it can open.

Favorable locations for wealth in 2027 are:

- Center: The #9 Annual Wealth Star brings excellent opportunities for partnerships and collaborations. It can also help with promotions, and career-related celebrations.
- Southeast: The #8 Cashflow Star is generally desirable for money from hard work. The more you work, the more money you make. It is a good Star to use for employees, self-employed professionals, contractors, and freelancers.

ROMANCE IN 2027

Whether you're flying solo or happily partnered up, everyone craves a touch of romance now and then. Feng Shui offers a gentle way to nurture the love you already have—helping it grow deeper and stronger—or, if you're still searching, to invite fresh romantic energy and new encounters your way.

Ideally, you'd want to rest and sleep in the areas of your home that naturally hold these loving vibrations, no matter what your current situation. Can't make that work? No problem—just aim to spend at least an hour each day in those spaces instead:

- Southwest 3: The Red Matchmaker Star is a Star of long-term connections and relationships. It supports meaningful connections that survive the test of time.
- South: The Annual #4 Peach Blossom Star takes up residence here and is great for those who are single and looking.

HEALTH IN 2027

When we talk about health in Feng Shui, our main focus tends to be on the yearly Flying Stars that pose risks to expectant mothers, seniors, babies, and anyone living with long-term health conditions. The core idea is simple: steer clear of those sectors—or at the very least, don't place your bed there—if they might negatively affect these vulnerable individuals.

The locations that have the most detrimental health effects in 2027 are:

- North: The dreaded Annual #5 Calamity Star flies into the North of your home or office this year and brings with it all kinds of issues – most notably health problems. Avoid spending more than 1 hour per day here.

- West: The Annual #2 Illness Star and the Three Killings affliction will take up residence in the West of your home in 2027. It is particularly risky for pregnant women and elderly folks with chronic health issues

Bad Health Sectors in 2027
North | West

HEALTH IN 2027

The good news is that there are also some excellent sectors you can use to improve your health and your immune system.

Ideally, sleep in one of these sectors or spend about 2 hours per day here – especially if you would like to give your health a little boost:

- Southwest: The Annual #6 Star is the one to use if you would like to counter an illness boost your immune system. Put your supplements and medicine in this sector to inject them with healing energies.

- Center: If you are more concerned with your mental and emotional wellbeing, then you might want to move your bedroom to the Center, as the Annual #9 Star is all about happiness and a good mood.

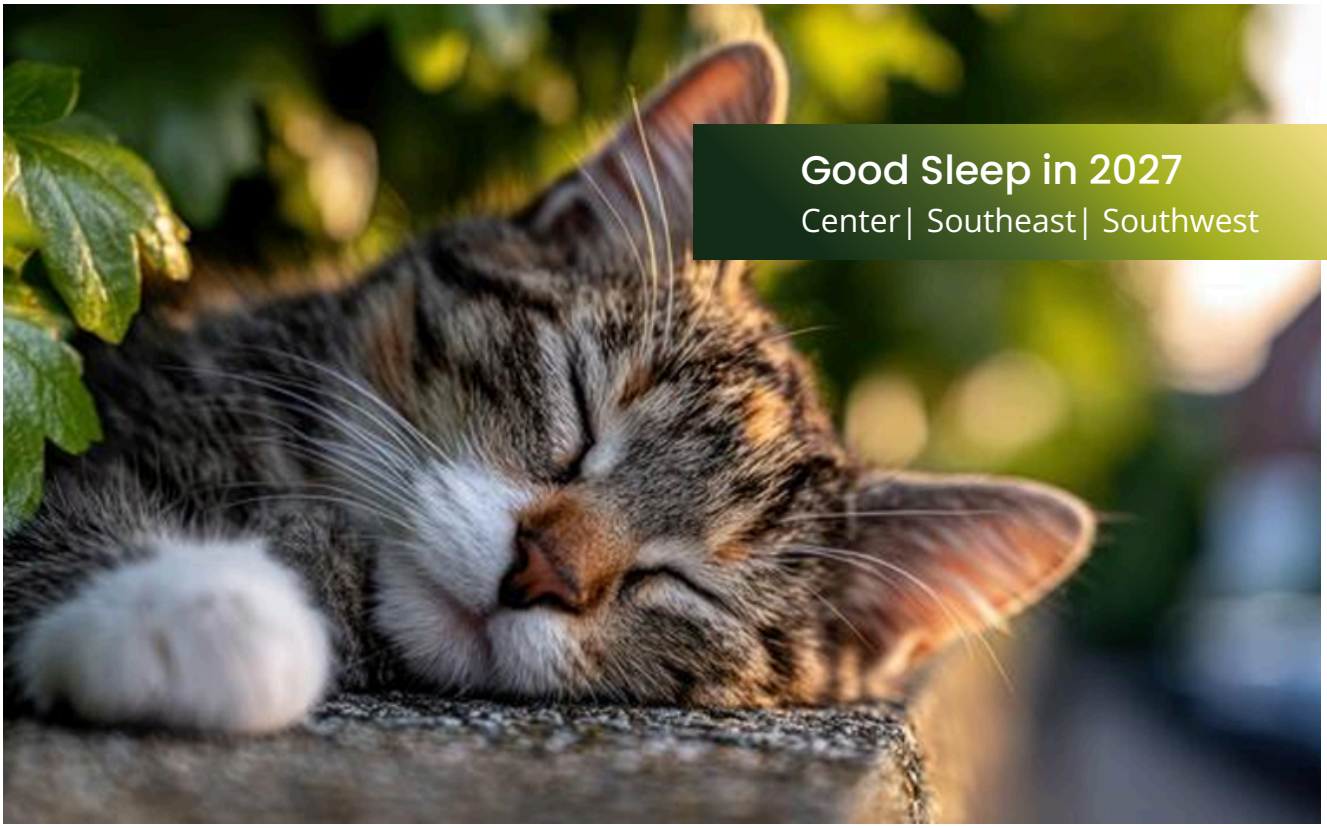

SLEEP IN 2027

Sleep is a critical factor in our wellbeing. Without a proper night's sleep, all other areas of life will suffer. Thankfully, Feng Shui provides solutions for all those who suffer from insomnia or interrupted sleep.

The following locations are particularly advantageous for sleeping in 2027:

- Southeast: Place your bed into the Southeast, which is host to the #8 Annual Star for improved sleep and health.

The following sectors are especially good for desk placement for those who need an academic boost:

CHALLENGES & OBSTACLES IN 2027

Every year brings its own mix of hurdles and highlights—and the essence of Feng Shui is to help us recognize both, so we can steer clear of draining forces while making the most of the positive energy surrounding us. Of course, we can never fully escape life's difficulties; they're simply part of the journey. But we can certainly reduce their impact to the point where they barely register in our daily lives.

That being said, in 2027, it's best to avoid the following sectors. If you can't stay out of them entirely —say, because your desk or bed is fixed in place—then at least avoid any hammering, drilling, rearranging furniture, or installing water features in those areas.

- North: The North of your home is host to the dreaded Annual #5 Yellow Star, which can cause all sorts of calamities and disasters. Do not renovate, hammer, drill or move furniture around in the Northeast of your home in 2027.

- Southwest 1: As the Grand Duke location of 2027, this area is best avoided for working or sleeping. It can bring an increased health risk for those with existing conditions. Working here can incur higher expenses.

- Northeast 1: This is the Year Breaker location for 2027 and is particularly harmful for the elderly if and when activated. Refrain from sleeping here and do not disturb this sector.

IMMUNIZE YOUR HOME IN 2027

ITo cut down on the yearly hurdles that tend to trip us up, we can give our home a protective boost—think of it as an energetic shield against bad vibes, while rolling out the welcome mat for luck and prosperity. The ideal time to do this is right as Chinese New Year starts on February 4, 2027, but if you're feeling like your fortunes could use a little pick-me-up, feel free to try it any time of year.

The four key celestial allies we're tapping into are the Sun, Moon, Dragon Virtue, and Fortune Virtue. Their positions shift from year to year, so where they land changes accordingly.

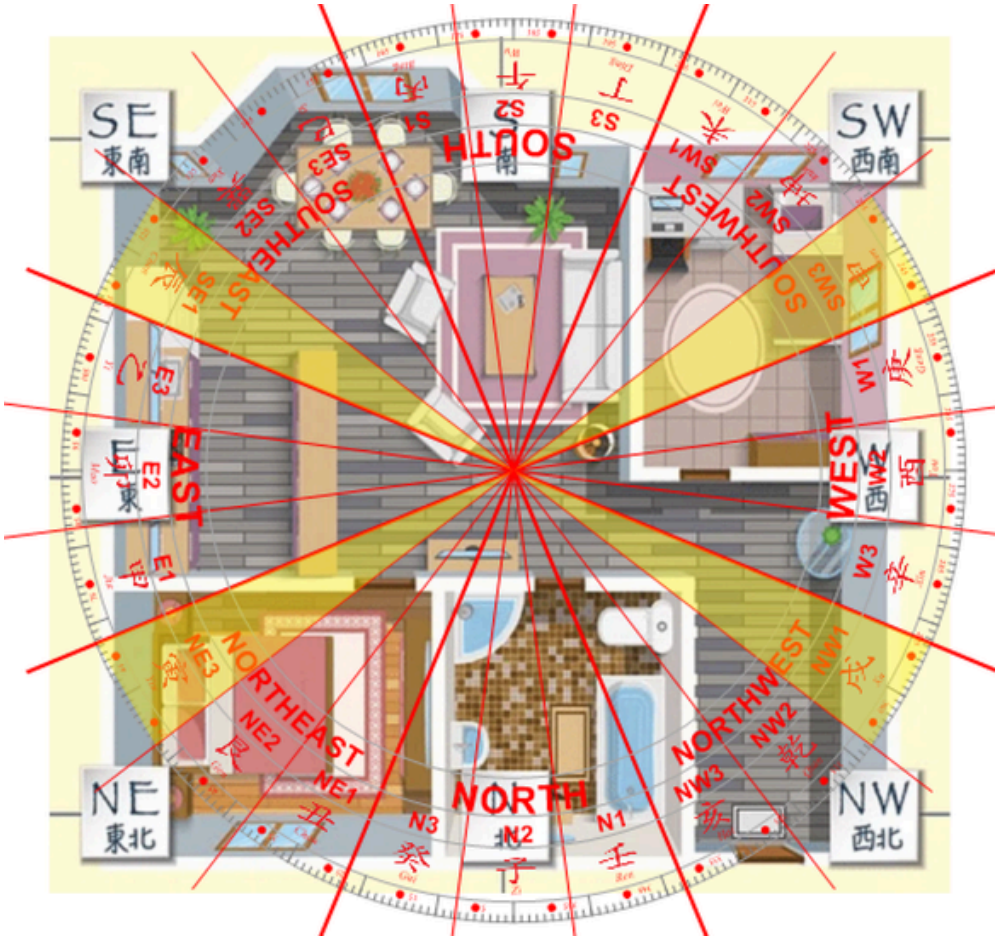

All you have to do is place a flowing water feature in any—or all—of those spots, but keep it running for no longer than two weeks per session.

Northeast 3: The Dragon Virtue Star will solve problems and protects you from harm.

Southeast 1: The Fortune Virtue Star can be activated to usher in happy events. It is great if you want to improve your positive energies.

Southwest 3: The Sun Star is a Nobleman Star and brings helpful people into your life.

Northwest 1: The Moon Star is also a Nobleman Star and brings helpful people into your life – mostly females.

THE YEAR OF THE FIRE GOAT AND THE 12 ANIMAL SIGNS

Goat Years: 1919, 1931, 1943, 1955, 1967, 1979, 1991, 2003, 2015, 2027

Goat Month: July 7 – August 7

Goat Hour: 1:00pm – 2:59pm

Positive Months: March, June, November

Negative Months: January, October, December

There will be opportunities for career advancement and the pursuit of professional interests this year. Climbing the executive ladder will give you a boost of confidence and a sense of independence. At the same time, you will constantly be inspired, driving you to produce creative work. This is all due to the artistic nature of the Elegant Seal Star. This is also an excellent Star if you are employed in sales and marketing, where creativity is key.

If you are single, then the Red Chamber Star will bring ample opportunity for short-term entanglements and affairs. For those in a committed relationship this could be a year to strengthen the intimate ties with your partner.

Your long-term plans may be faced with disruptions due to the Grand Duke Star. Unexpected problems will surface, forcing you to make changes. Not everybody is comfortable with change, but the more you embrace change, the better this year will work for you. Be spontaneous, and this is actually a good Star to have at your side.

If you are feeling a bit low or down, then you can blame it on the inauspicious Sword Edge Star, which is the harbinger of stress and depression. Take plenty of time to pamper yourself this year and focus on self-care to avoid the negative effects of this Star.

Beware of the Yellow Flag Star. These energies can bring sad events, such as funerals or memorials. Check in with your friends and family regularly, so you won't be caught off guard. It also indicates that something is pulling you away from real life – it could be a passion or an addiction or an obsession, an unhealthy habit, etc. Instead of doing what you really want to do, you are wasting your time on something that does not help you grow. Ask yourself – what is distracting you from what you want to achieve? Identify it and cut it out of your life.

Be mindful of your communication this year, particularly with family members. The Hidden Corpse Star has the tendency to bring about communication breakdowns and misunderstandings. For females, this Star can bring about a miscarriage. If you are planning to conceive in 2027, especially if it has not been easy for you previously, then be extra careful in 2027 – at least in the first trimester.

THE YEAR OF THE FIRE GOAT AND THE 12 ANIMAL SIGNS

Monkey Years: 1920, 1932, 1944, 1956, 1968, 1980, 1992, 2004, 2016, 2028

Monkey Month: August 8 – September 7

Monkey Hour: 3:00pm – 4:59pm

Positive Months: April, May, December

Negative Months: February, May, November

This year will open new doors for you in career and business. You can look forward to career progression and networking with important people that could lead to financial gains. This is due to the presence of the Sun Star. It is one of the most powerful Nobleman Stars and will give you infinite energy. To activate this Star, try to be of service to others both physically and mentally. Serve, protect and assist as much as you possibly can. Be the sun in the life of others in order to receive abundance in return.

This year, the Red Matchmaker Star appears in your favour, bringing along an air or romance. You will be presented with opportunities to meet new people, plenty of positive social activities and even love related news. The Red Matchmaker Star is one of the four Peach Blossom Stars and as a Relationship Star, this means great news if you are still single and looking for a partner. Luck is on your side if you are proactive in love matters this year. Those who are already in a relationship will also enjoy auspiciousness within your relationship, as this Star helps strengthen your love for each other.

Thanks to the positive energies of the Golden Carriage Star, you could end up marrying rich or you are so good in your career or in your skills, that people will be looking for you to bring you big business or headhunt you into a big company.

Practice caution this year as the Robbery Sha Star has a tendency of bringing individuals with negative influence into your life. Do not place yourself in a vulnerable position and be careful that opportunities won't be taken away from you by competitors. The possibility of losing cash or valuables is high, so be aware of your surroundings. As a business owner, ensure to keep your account in check.

The Sky Emptiness Star will bring lots of talk but no action. You may find yourself having lots of plans for the year but then looking back at the end of the year, you will realize that nothing you had planned worked out quite the way you'd hoped. The solution is to simply not plan anything.

In case you are wondering why you are turning into a complainer this year, look no further than the Bad Qi Star, which makes you complain a lot and nag others. It is also a reminder to remove or disassociate yourself from people who are always negative and are always the victims. There will be lots of complainers and whiners around you. Safeguard your own energy field.

The Solitary Star will make you want to isolate yourself because you feel misunderstood. It helps to talk to those closest to you and share your worries and fears with them as you experience bouts of loneliness. This Star can also indicate a lower immune system, which means you are more prone to sickness than usual, so be sure to take extra care of yourself.

Do not get into disputes or arguments with other people this year. With the presence of the Cascading Cloud Star, they will take revenge or hold long-term grudges against you.

THE YEAR OF THE FIRE GOAT AND THE 12 ANIMAL SIGNS

As someone in a leadership role, you will be able to enhance your management skills.

As a student, this year will be very favourable for any academic endeavour – especially since you are also under the influence of the Study Hall Star, which helps with academic achievements.

The Sky Gracious Star brings even more Nobleman Luck and Peach Blossom Luck. This energy is great for academic studies and helps scoring good results in exams.

If travel is in your plans this year, then check the weather report and purchase insurance beforehand, as the Calamity Sha Star brings unnecessary problems and the possibility of natural calamities.

The Separating Edge Star will make you want to isolate yourself from others and spend more time alone. This is a trap! Instead, go out more and reconnect with friends and family.

The Peeling Head Star can make you feel like you're being suppressed, especially once you've reached the top, but don't let these feelings bring you down, it's just a matter of perception. Ignore the petty people around you. This Star also has a darker side and can indicate illness or death in the family, so make sure you're in touch with your loved once and keep checking in regularly.

With the presence of the Funeral Door Star, your elderly relatives may need more support from you this year. This Star brings about the potential for illness and injuries to senior family members so maybe sure to check in on them regularly. This is even more important since the Earth Funeral Star brings a higher risk of mourning over the death of family or friends.

The Prison Inmate Star can lead to feelings of being trapped – be that professionally or personally. Take small steps forward to avoid giving into this feeling.

ABOUT
SUSANNE SCHUTZ

Having lived and worked in Asia for three decades, and with extensive knowledge of business cultures in both Europe and Asia, Susanne Schutz felt that Chinese Metaphysics was missing something.

In 2014, she founded Suzhong Consulting. The company was born out of her awareness of the need for a more professionally based Chinese Metaphysics consulting service.

Susanne is uniquely positioned in her level of both business experience and Chinese Metaphysics mastery, having studied with Grandmaster Dato Joey Yap and holds four Masters Degrees in Chinese Metaphysics – Classical Feng Shui, Bazi Astrology, Chinese Date Selection, Qimen Dunjia.

Susanne bridges the gap between local Chinese Metaphysics Masters who rarely explain their practices and procedures, and cosmopolitan clients who require a more modern and adaptive approach, a deeper understanding and rationale for the solutions presented.
